The Big Idea

It is difficult for many Ventura County residents to find housing at a price that allows them to build a life here. The Avenue is experiencing added pressures— our desirability attracts both investors and new residents whose purchasing power keeps housing prices elevated and out of reach for many local families.

We know that the more housing could provide missing rungs on the ladder of economic opportunity. But the natural inclination to avoid change in our neighborhoods has forged resistance against addressing housing supply. We need change, but we fear change. How might we move past this impasse?

HEIDI F BEAL FINE ART 2741 VICTORIA AVE, STE A OXNARD, CA 93035

Heidi F Beal is an interdisciplinary artist and educator. She works primarily in mixed media painting using photography and encaustic. Her art is content driven and explores concepts of fertility, our relationship with the common vital life force in all living things, and the edge where life meets death. Heidi is looking for a studio intern (preferably an apprentice), that has a deep desire to learn everything about being an artist and running their studio. Someone who is hungry for the knowledge that she has to offer. Must be social media marketing savvy, have the patience for inventory work, and understand the finesse of handling artwork.

This would be an unpaid internship opportunity for anyone wanting experience in the industry. Please use the contact form below to be considered for a first interview and include your availability in the "message" section.

+ CUSTOMER SATISFACTION

In addition to her abilities to connect, as well as her artistic talents, she also has high ethical standards as well as an incredible work ethic.

Any organization which is lucky enough to hire her will not be disappointed.

MARGARET NOVEMBER, M.D.

Director, Buenaventura Art Association, Ventura, CA

+ CUSTOMER SATISFACTION

Aliza is professional, intuitive, creative, and flexible. She always delivers her work on time, is willing to work within our organization's time constraints, and offers suggestions that make the most sense.

JACKIE PEARCE

Executive Director, Westside Community Development Corp, Ventura, CA

+ CUSTOMER SATISFACTION

Aliza was an organizational whiz - her comprehensive knowledge of various software applications and Google Workspace, combined with her tireless work ethic, made her an indispensable asset to the organization, especially one that was tight on resources. She is a gem.

GIGI YING

Director, Bell Arts Factory, Ventura, CA
